

Job Title: Information Security Consultant
Location: Rome, NY
Date: 03-25-2008

Description:

NYSTEC (New York State Technology Enterprise Corporation) provides technology acquisition, technology management, and engineering services to government and other institutions in the Northeast. We are seeking the following for our Rome, NY location: Security Consultant to provide security engineering support and advice in the specification, procurement, assessment, development, implementation, and testing of large-scale Information Technology systems/networks. Successful candidate will have extensive experience in security management practices, access control systems and networking security, cryptography, security architecture and models, along with a CISSP or similar certification.

Experience with operations security, application & systems development security, physical security, business continuity & disaster recovery planning desired. Exceptional communication and project management skills a must.

Travel to Albany and New York City required. Send resume by e-mail to hr@nystec.com
NYSTEC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.